

Short Professional Bios

Sylvia Aimerito

On-Air Radio Personality

Los Angeles broadcast veteran for over twenty-five-years, having worked at various radio stations, including hosting mornings on KBIG, and most recently on air at oldies legend KEARTH 101.

In-demand Voice Over Talent

Her voice is heard on TV and radio commercials, infomercials, documentaries, PlayStation games, promos, in-flight shows, and e-learning projects.

Producer

Sylvia has produced and served as host of several long-running radio shows that have aired in the US and abroad, including "Into the Night" - a long-running Christian music show airing via satellite in Europe, Africa, and the Middle East.

Lori Rae Martin

Professional Singer and Musician...

Lori has performed throughout the US with several musical ensembles including on-road back-up singer for Lou Rawls and five years on stage at Disneyland.

On Faculty

After receiving her music degree and attending grad school for Jazz Studies, she served on faculty as a music teacher for K-8, high school, and college.

Published composer

Her music can be heard on TV and radio commercials, documentaries, and promos.

Print

Lori is a featured interview in the best-selling Jeffrey P. Fischer book, How to Make Money Scoring Soundtracks and Jingles.

Music Minister

Lori has served as a music minister for over twenty years, with a personal and career highlight of meeting and singing for Mother Teresa as choir director and cantor for "America's Welcome to Mother Teresa." (1986)

Professional Team

Lori and Sylvia co-own a state-of-the-art recording studio and AudioGirl Productions: a full-service audio and video production company that produces commercials, promos, and radio shows for TV, radio, and web, as well as non-broadcast projects including audio production and voice over casting for e-learning and in-flight entertainment.

Professional Team for Ministry Work

Using their skills in production, voice over, music, entertainment, and broadcasting, they produce pro-life films, music, and tutorials that educate, motivate, and inspire others to become "A Bold and Active Voice For the Unborn." They also provide music for Liturgical celebrations, including a monthly Mass For Life.